L'Alliance Française de Paris

The Alliance Française de Paris was founded in 1883 in Paris and has remained the world's reference in teaching French as a foreign language.

The association has built its action and its reputation on the quality of its teaching and training in a multicultural environment that encourages exchange, respect, and conviviality.

More than 600 organizations rely on us to set up French language training for their language training for their employees.

A pioneer in the field of teaching French as a foreign language (FLE), the Alliance Française de Paris mobilizes its know-how to optimize the learning of language skills in a professional context.

Our priority : to improve the oral and written skills oral and written skills in order to guarantee their integration in their professional environment. After a precise analysis of your needs, we guide you in the implementation of adapted training courses and accompany you during their administrative management.

You are a company, an institution a religious congregation,... our learning solutions are adapted to your needs in order to train your employees and/or their spouses in French and thus allow them to integrate into their professional environment.

We also offer courses integrating the passing of an official French language exam as well as the possibility of preparing for it in the best conditions.
